

The ATS “Day” at International Surgical Week
Reduced day only Registration for ATS members
See the ISW Webpage to Register
<http://www.sapmea.asn.au/conventions/isw2009/>

International Surgical Week 2009 Adelaide SA

Scientific Program Details - Wednesday, September 9, 2009

08:30-10:00 93I AT SIC / ATS Symposium Moderators:

Resuscitation / Haemostasis / Haemostatics E.E. Moore, USA K.D. Boffard, South Africa
Panellists:

Damage control resuscitation: goals and end points K. Gunn, New Zealand

Promoting and monitoring systemic coagulation K.D. Boffard, South Africa

Haemostatics: local control of bleeding - do they work? E.E. Moore, USA

On going bleeding in the SICU: what works? M. Parr, Australia

10:30-12:00 103I AT SIC / ICRC / ATS Main Session Moderators:

Responding to mass casualty: what physicians and surgeons should know

A. Pearce, Australia, J. Crozier, Australia

Panellists:

What does the non-surgeon need to know? A. Pearce, Australia

What does the surgeon need to know? J. Crozier, Australia

My deployments: what I expected vs. what I experienced J.L. Riddez, Sweden

How to train physicians for disaster response? C. Giannou, Greece

ATS Afternoon Session and AGM

Draft Program TBC

1400-1415 Don Jenkins – Medical lessons from war experience

1415- 1430 Avi Rivkind – Blast injury

1430-1445 Annette Holian – Operating out of your comfort zone – the military experience

1445 - 1530 ATS AGM

1600-1615 Mark Fitzgerald – Trauma resuscitation decision support

1615-1630 Sally Forrest-Holder – Nurse initiated FAST

1630-1645 Amanda Holgate – Trauma team training

1645-1700 Andrea Delprado – The Australasian Green and Gold Book: Where is it?

1700-1715 Phil Truskett – ATLS 8th Edition –Update

1715-1730 Arthus Flabouris – Trauma verification – Report